

HACKATHON 19

Coder King

Eligibility for Team Members

- Technical Students belonging to CSE, IT, ECE, EEE or equivalent may participate.
- Once teams have registered, changes in team members will not be encouraged.
- A team consist of maximum 4 students. (Max. 2 teams per institute allowed).
- All Team members must be currently studying in same institution.
- Team members may be from different academic levels.

Event Rules

- All team members should be present at the event.
- Projects that violate the Code of Conduct are not allowed.
- Teams can be disqualified from the competition at the organizers' discretion.
- The selected students should have ID card, Laptops & accessories like charger, extension box if any.
- Data card (optional).
- Internet will be provided.

- Teams can use libraries, frameworks, or open-source code in their projects. Working on a project before the event and open-sourcing it for the sole purpose of using the code during the event is against the spirit of the rules and is not allowed.
- Adding new features to existing projects is allowed. Judges will only consider new functionality introduced or new features added during the Hackathon in determining the winners.

Timings:

- Inauguration 9A.M (7/03/2019).
- Hackathon coding (7/03/2019, 10A.M - 8/03/2019, 10A.M).
- Closing Ceremony & Prize distribution 10A.M (8/03/2019).

Registration Fees:

- Rs 350/- per student.
(This includes Lunch to Lunch, Tea &snacks)
- Payment details will be mailed to the shortlisted team.

Prizes:

The cash prizes and awards will be given to the top two teams.

Submission of Idea PPT should contain the following details:

- Team Name
- Team Details
- Domain selected & Project Title
- Problem Statement
- Problem Identified
- Ideas
- Solution
- Software, Hardware going to be used in the Project (Data Base, Server, Framework, etc..)
- Use case

Project Submission Rules:

Submission of the fully working Demo Link Presentation which explains - Idea & its Impact Link to Repository URL is compulsory to qualify for final prizes.